19 lowing:

20 (1) Coordinate with the Domestic Policy Coun-
21 cil and the National Economic Council to develop 22 the policy of the Council.

23 (2) Coordinate with departments, agencies, and 24 offices of the executive branch to develop policy rec-25 ommendations that promote economic prosperity and

1 quality of life in rural areas (as defined by the Sec-
2 retary of Agriculture) throughout the United States.

3 (3) Make recommendations to the President,
4 through the Director of the Domestic Policy Council
5 and the Director of the National Economic Council, 6 on how to best use Federal investments in rural 7 areas for the purpose of facilitating job growth and 8 economic development.

9 (4) Coordinate and increase the effectiveness of 10 Federal engagement with rural stakeholders, includ-
11 ing agricultural organizations, small businesses, edu-
12 cation and training institutions, health care pro-
13 viders, telecommunications services providers, re-
14 search and land grant institutions, law enforcement, 15 State, local, and Tribal governments, and non-16 governmental organizations regarding the needs of 17 rural areas throughout the United States.

18 (5) Coordinate Federal efforts directed toward 19 the growth and development of geographic regions
20 that encompass both urban and rural areas.

21 (6) Identify and facilitate rural economic oppor-
22 tunities associated with energy development, outdoor 23 recreation, and other conservation-related activities.

24 (e) ADMINISTRATION.—The Secretary of Agriculture
25 (or staff designated by the Secretary) shall provide to the

1 Council administrative support services and additional re-
2 sources, as appropriate, to the extent permitted by law and 3 within existing appropriations. The Secretary shall deter-
4 mine the amount of funding and personnel necessary for 5 the Council to carry out its duties and the amount of fund-
6 ing and personnel each department, agency, or office rep-
7 resented on the Council should contribute in order for the 8 Council to carry out such duties. Such department, agen-
9 cy, or office shall, upon the request of the Secretary, make 10 available to the Council personnel, administrative support
